

DAVIS LANDED NAVAL FORCE BY BRITISH REQUEST

Washington Has This Fact
Proved; Also that Swettenham Gave Thanks.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—To ascertain exactly the conditions upon which American naval forces were employed in Jamaica, and especially to determine the point whether or not they were used at the request of the Colonial authorities or whether their service was gratuitous, Secretary McCall called upon Admiral Davis through his superior, Admiral Evans, for copies of the text of the letters between the Admiral and the British authorities of Jamaica.

These were received by cable last night and a careful comparison made at the Navy Department between the letters as furnished by Admiral Davis and the same as appeared in the press dispatches from Kingston show that they were substantially alike, the only difference being some trivial condensation of terms.

This point is established that Admiral Davis did not land naval forces without request for his report to the Department, among other things, he says: "Yielding to the entreaties of the Colonial Secretary and the Inspector of Police who spoke for the Governor, I landed fifty men under arms from the Indiana."

"This was under date of Jan. 13, and on the same day the following letter was delivered to Admiral Davis from the Governor of the Island: 'Colonial Secretary's office, Jamaica, Jan. 13, 1907: 'Sir—I beg to thank your excellency for the kind assistance which you have rendered to the government of this colony. I have the honor to be, sir,

"Your obedient servant,"
"Signed: J. A. SWETTENHAM,
"Governor."

In the opinion of the department officials, Admiral Davis is thus entirely relieved from any criticism for his action in landing the naval forces.

ORDER FOR ARMY TENTS TO KINGSTON COUNTERMANDED.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Jan. 24.—The steamer Oteri has arrived here from Kingston, Jamaica, with 120 refugees, including the family of the late Cuban Consul, Senor Perez.

It is reported that a petition is being circulated in Kingston to have Gov. Swettenham removed. Intense disgust prevails at the treatment which Rear Admiral Davis was subjected to by the Governor. The order to send tents from the Morro barracks here to Kingston for the accommodation of the homeless people has been countermanded.

COWBOY KILLS SIX INDIANS IN FIGHT.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Jan. 24.—At Beatty Camp, on the New Southern Pacific line, eight miles from Moctama, Sonora, Mexico, yesterday, Bert Seely, a noted Arizona cowboy, single-handed, shot and killed six Yaqui laborers.

Seely, it is said, acted in self-defense. He had a quarrel with one of the gang of Indians with whom he was working on the grade, and all of them attacked him with shovels and picks. Before they reached him, Seely fired five shots at the Indians from his revolver. He picked the five foremost of the advancing Indians in two, two, three order, stopping their onslaught. Every shot he fired proved fatal.

Running down the grade a sixth Indian tried to intercept him, and Seely also shot this one dead. Seely escaped. He bears an excellent reputation in Arizona.

GIANT HUSBAND KILLED AND HIS WEE BRIDE SHOT

Hoboken Police Puzzled
by Tragedy and Examine a Brother.

In the fatal shooting of little Mrs. Mary Darbazian, a sixteen-year-old bride, and her giant husband, Peter Darbazian, in the bride's mother's apartment at No. 715 Shippen street, West Hoboken, to-day, the police have confessed that they are mystified.

The tragedy was at first reported by the girl's parents as a murder and suicide. The young husband was enraged because the girl had left him after three weeks' married life. This story was borne out by the girl's wife in an afternoon statement after she had been taken to the North Hoboken hospital. She was shot twice, one bullet entering the right eye and lodging in her brain. The other was in her left shoulder.

The police found, however, that the dead man's revolver was in his pocket and was fully loaded. The revolver with which the shooting was done belonged to her brother, Peter Bassam. Another peculiar feature of the case was that Darbazian was shot in the back of the right hand. The bullet that ended his life entered his right temple.

All the persons concerned in the tragedy are Armenians employed in the West Hoboken silk mills. The neighbors have spoken guardedly of bad blood existing between the young husband and the family of his bride, Chief McCauley, of West Hoboken, examined the girl's brother and other members of the family this afternoon. They all admitted the revolver was the brother's, and said they could not tell how Darbazian had found it.
